

Central Indiana Young Marines – 2013 Unit Encampment Supply List

This year, the adult staff wants to mix it up a bit and get “Back to Basics”. As a result, some things on the schedule will be new while others will be very familiar to those who have participated in the past. In addition to Map & Compass (with a bit of a twist), we will also be offering Canoeing, Archery and Fishing.

MUST BRING

- Sleeping Bag
- Utilities
- (2) pair black shorts
- Change of socks and skivvies for three days
- Red Unit T-Shirt
- (1) pair of jeans
- Shower Shoes/Sandals
- Sandals or Water Shoes (canoeing)
- Athletic shoes that can get dirty
- Towel and washcloth
- Hygiene gear (toothbrush, toothpaste, soap, deodorant, etc.)
- Any prescription medications if needed
 - NOTE: Medications need to be in their original container. Please see Pam Moore for specific needs or questions.
- Large plastic zip-loc bags for wet clothing

CAN BRING

- Compass
- Small pillow and/or bed roll
- Small First Aid kit
- Rain Poncho
- CamelBak

SHOULD BRING

- Flashlight with extra batteries
- Trash bag for dirty clothing or trash
- Bug Spray (non-aerosol)
- Pad of paper and (2) pencils
- Canteen or sports bottle (NOT disposable water bottles)

DO NOT BRING

- Any knives, axes, saws or hatchets
- Cameras or cell phones
- Electronic devise of any kind (such as games or iPods)
- Laser lights
- Matches or lighters
- Guns of any kind including toy, water, air soft, etc.
- Food or candy of any kind EXCEPT as requested for sharing with the group.

PLEASE BRING

In an effort to reduce costs, we are asking that each Young Marine supply at least one box of healthy snacks that can be shared with the group throughout the weekend. Examples of healthy snacks include cereal bars, granola bars and fruits.

HELPFUL HINTS

Mark your name on as many of your belongings as possible. This will avoid confusion should another Young Marine show up with the same item and there is a mix up during the weekend.

Remember to pack lightly.

UNIFORM OF THE DAY

The uniform for encampment will be full utilities with red Young Marine t-shirts for Friday.

Saturday and Sunday uniform will be adjusted based on the activities that are scheduled.

PICK UP AND DROP OFF

DROP OFF: Friday, September 13th at 1700. Parents CANNOT leave until their Young Marine is physically signed in.

PICK UP: Sunday, September 15th at 1300